Crash of Jet Plane Could Have Spelled Disaster for Fulton

The score of the Bardwell-Mayfield basketball game was 12-3. The J. R. Powell family was sitting in their comfortable cottage near Fulton. It was about 8:25 p. m. Saturday.

Mr. Powell's interest in that exciting game on the radio was interrupted when his wife told him she heard an explosion. Powell went to the window and saw a bright glare of light and thought perhaps it came from his basement window. Opening his back door he looked toward his mother's home, some two city blocks away directly behind his home, and saw the barn, about 100 yards from his mother's house, in flames.

He rushed to the scene of the fire and was startled to find the tail-end of a plane in front of the barn. Looking on about 500 yards away from the barn he saw another huge fire and on close investigation found that:

An F-80 jet fighter plane had crashed into the barn, plowed right through the hall-way of the barn, and crashed into an open field of sloping hillside.

Within a few minutes other neighbors gathered and immediately called the Fulton fire department who fought unsuccessfully to save the barn. The State police were called, who in turn called military authorities at Fort Campbell, Kentucky to investigate the accident.

The military authorities arrived at about 2:30 a. m. and immediately threw a guard around the wreckage. Meanwhile nearly 1000 spectators had gathered to witness the fire. A steady stream of spectators

Two other crashes, one in Fulton and one on the outskirts, have previously been experienced by local residents. An informant recalled that a spectacular crash in board daylight on the streets of downtown Fulton occurred when a stunt plane failed to clear the top of the Graham Furniture Company building on Walnut Street, ploughed into the old Cohn building across the street and landed on top of a Chevrolet automobile parked at the curb on Walnut street. The propeller of the plane killed the horse that was pulling the buggy containing Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brady down the street.

In another, more recent crash, a pilot in trouble attempted to make an emergency landing on the Clint Reed field about eight o'clock one night, hit some electric wires on his approach and killed a woman passenger. Her home was barely missed by viewed the wreckage all day Sunday. Mr. Powell's mother had retired early. She said that she did not hear the plane as it roared over the country-side, but was awakened when the crash of the jet fighter exploded the barn into a huge fire. Her home was barely missed by NARROWLY MISSED THE CITY: Approximate path plane that crashed near here Saturday night indicates that long glide to earth barely missed some part of Fulton. Pilot parachuted to earth approximately at point of star near Latham, and plane crashed a scant two miles or so above Fulton, at point indicated by star.

NARROWLY MISSED THE HOUSE: On long, flat glide to earth the jet plane, approaching along the course of arrow, above, came within 200 yards of crashing into house (right circle) occupied by Mrs. Fannie Powell. (Left circle) shows remains of barn that was ripped to bits and burned.

RIPPED BARN TO BITS: All that remained Sunday at daylight of the ill-fated barn on the Powell place was this mass of twisted sheet metal siding and the telescoped tail-end of the jet, indicated at left by arrow. Motor and several heavy sections of plane bounced and rolled almost a quarter-mile to a field on the next slope. Path of plane is indicated by dotted line and arrow.

SARA BUSHART

Sara Bushart Selected Fulton's Woman Of The Year For 1954

Sara Callahan Bushart, the wife of Dr. Ward Bushart, was chosen Woman of the Year last night at Smith's Rose Room when Governor Lawrence Wetherby presented the Fulton County News award to the outstanding citizen of 1954.

Mrs. Bushart was selected over a group of other prominent Fultonians by a secret committee appointed by the News to make the award.

More than 100 guests were in attendance at the banquet among them Dr. W. E. Blackburn, Chemistry professor at Murray State College who taught Mrs. Bushart while a student there and Mrs. Carl Winters of Louisville, President of the Auxiliary to the State Medical Society.

Mrs. Bushart is the fourth Fultonian to receive the News award. Others named were Gene Williamson, Laurence Holland and Sebra Evans.

Mayor Bill Browning welcomed the guests to the banquet following the invocation by Rev. Dan Overall. Mrs. Bushart's pastor, Bob White, president of the Chamber of Commerce responded to the welcome. Paul Westpheling acted as Master of Ceremonies.

On her own cognizance and to insure Mrs. Bushart of being at the dinner, she was asked to of Mrs. L. H. Howard and the late L. T. Callahan who died when Sara was a year old. She attended the Fulton Schools where she was active in all phases of school work and was most proficient in music. She was the only student in the history to graduate from high school in three and one-half years. She attended Murray State College for one term and then entered the University of Kentucky where she pledged Alpha Gamma Delta.

Following her year in college she worked for the West Kentucky Finance Company. She married Dr. Bushart on July 25, 1937 and they have four children who shared their mother's happiness Wednesday night.

No segment of Fulton's civic, cultural and religious life is unfamiliar to Sara Bushart. She has been president of the Junior Woman's Club, the West Fulton P-TA, Fulton-Hickman

Donors To Have Opportunity At New Chrysler

A spirited drive to procure working capital for the Fulton Lookouts and pay off an indebtedness of nearly $3000 got underway in Fulton Tuesday morning. A large group of Fulton baseball enthusiasts hit the streets Tuesday to get $1.00 donations to the ball club and give the lucky donor an opportunity to ride away in a beautiful new Chrysler, which is now on display at King Motor Company.

Plan of the drive is to raise approximately $10,000. The funds derived would be used to pay for the automobile to be given away, pay off $3000 in old debts and still have at least $4000 working capital.

Foad Homra, a long-time baseball enthusiast and booster of the Lookouts is chairman of the drive. Assisting in the drive are:

A cast of 100 will take part in the 1955 Cub Scout Minstrel "Man-Hat-Tan" on Monday and Tuesday nights, March 21 and 22 at Carr Auditorium.

Cubmaster Nelson Tripp promises a new type of entertainment this year. The endmen for the show are six brand-new High School boys who will keep things moving with their hilarious antics. They are: David Clements, Guy Earle, Benny Sams, Eddie Moore, Bobby Newton and Milton Exum. Veteran minstrel man Tillman Adams will serve as interlocutor.

Mrs. Nelson Tripp will assist Mr. Tripp with the music end of the show. She is working with a chorus made up of Cub Scouts and in addition to the snappy tunes of the chorus will be some specialty numbers featuring Johnny Pharis, Tommy Harwood and Ken Bowlin.

An entirely new number by the ever popular Cubberettes will be a special treat. The Cubberettes this year are: Pam Homra, Lee Cantrell, Judy Owen, Sherry Johnson, Sara Jane Hall, Cathy Campbell and Joan Fuller.

A NEW WOOL PROGRAM

A new kind of price program for wool goes into effect this year. Under this farmers will get more money for the wool and the users will pay less. Now there is something you seldom see. The farmer getting a raise and the buyer getting a better price, or getting the same commodity much cheaper. The ultimate goal is to increase both wool production and consumption of manufacturers. The thing seems contradictory but I think it will work just fine. Here it is:

Under the new program each farmer will sell his wool on the open market for the best price he can get. At the end of the marketing year the USDA will calculate the average price received by farmers for their wool. If the average price is below 62 cents a pound, all producers together will be entitled to government payments to make up the difference between what they actually received and what they would have received if the price had averaged 62 cents a pound. This total amount will be divided among producers in the proportion to the amount of money that each receives from the sale of wool.

Say the average market price that farmers received for the 1955 clip is 53 cents. This is 9 cents below the 62 cent mark. This figures out to be 17 percent of the 53 cents, the average price actually received by farmers. Each farmer would be eligible for a payment equal to 17 percent of the amount in dollars that he received for wool.

If a farmer produces and sells $100 worth of wool, he will be eligible for an additional payment from Uncle Sam of $17, or 17 percent and so down the line, regardless of the amount of wool sold or price per pound. Payments will be made on 1955 wool sold after April 1, 1955. Farmers should keep two copies of the sales account as he will need them in making application for payment. Application for payment on 1955 wool should be made at the County ASC office as soon as possible after the wool is sold, but not later than April 1 1956 for the payment on the 1955 wool clip. The farmer may sell to a private dealer or through a cooperative association.

Payments will probably be made sometime in 1956.

Diary of Doin's

—Around Fulton—

The News writes social happenings about you and your friends.

This is one of those weeks where it would be mighty fine to be a centipede. Or better still if there were two of us, we could do just twice as much as we have been trying to do. Whatta life! This is one of those weeks where it would be better to have stayed in bed Monday morning and just keep right on slumbering until the next Monday.

Monday night we covered the Cub Scout Minstrel Tuesday night the Fashion Show; Wednesday night the Man of the Year Award dinner; Thursday night a meeting to organize the Cancer organization; Friday night... surely it couldn't be a night of television... maybe, we'll see!

And that's only in our little bailiwick. Think of the persons who attended meetings of the Woman's Club, choral practice, Community concert meetings, and on and on and on.

But let's talk about some of the things that have happened. Last Friday night of course was the big event around these parts when the Lion's Club held its annual Ladies' night at the Strata Club. As always it was such a wonderful party as are most events that the Lions sponsor. The Strata Club looked especially pretty with its table decorations of yellow jonquils, interspersed with greenery and soft candlelight. Win Whitel, in the briefest speech-making ever, introduced invited guests and after the meal a perfectly scintillating floor show was put on by Joy White's dancing class of Martin.

The Melody Men of Fulton played the music for the dance which lasted until the wee hours; and then came the bacon and egg parties everywhere.

The guest list for the party included:

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kramer, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. John Lloyd Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Eddie Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Joe Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Danny Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wade, Mr. and Mrs. A. When a feller gets up past 21, like John Earle is, and like we are, birthdays are those things that one has, but which one would rather not remember. But not so last week with John. He got the biggest, prettiest birthday cake you ever saw. Know why? He was 30 years old. Well, that's nearly right. John casually remarked to somebody that on that day he had been a Chevrolet dealer for thirty years, and as a matter of fact it was that long ago that he sold his first Chevrolet to J. J. Travis on Eddings. Well, the Chevrolet folks toured the USA with that remark and at a sales meeting held at Smith's Cafe last week, you know what happened. John was started to see that big cake brought out and placed in front of him.

John was happy to have at his "party" about 20 dealers and sales managers in attendance. John told us this confidentially, and we don't tell a soul, but that cake was a real surprise. He was truly taken away with the sentiment and we just imagine that there was a misty eye or two around there somewhere.

Happy birthday, John Earle and to your partner Earle Taylor. You're a couple of spry looking fellows, and only thirty years old, too.

Members of the Junior Woman's Club will have a rare treat in store for them when they attend the District meeting to be held at Kentucky Dam on March 18. Miss Chloe Gifford, on the University of Kentucky staff and one of the most entertaining speakers in Kentucky will address the group. Several members of the Fulton Club are planning to attend.

Norwegian and German music was the topic of the program when the Music Department of the Woman's Club held its regular meeting. The topic was in good hands as Doris Wiley presented several outstanding selections of the music from those countries.

The group was saddened to accept the resignation of Mrs. Milton Callham as sponsor of the Beethoven Music Club. Ruth has done such a wonderful job with these budding musicians and her friendship with them and her careful and devoted attention to their talents will leave a hard-to-fill spot in the lives of these young people.

Doris "pinch-hitted" for Mrs. Egbert Williams as program leader and the program she presented is as follows:

Miss Molly Wiley, pianist, "Prelude in G" by Bach, and "Sonata in D No. 7" by Haydn. Arthur Roman, "Concerto for Clarinet" by Mozart, accompanied by Mrs. Roman.

Mrs. Gus Bard played Liszt's arrangement of Wagner's "Tannhauser," and "To Spring" by Greig.

The University of Kentucky is the only college or university in the nation which offers formal classes in polo. It was announced recently by the UK Department of Physical Education, Kob Ryan, UK light-horse-husbandry instructor, is in charge of these classes, which meet for actual riding on a hilly little plot behind the Blue Grass Airport. There is a possibility that UK may field a polo team next year, officials of the Department of Physical Education asserted.

For The Future - A City Manager?

With the problems of running a community constantly on their shoulders, a mayor and council of a city the size of Fulton generally are called on to devote far more time to their civic job than the public realizes. Perhaps, in years gone by, this main reason has caused so many good citizens to veer away from the job of councilman, however important it might be to the well-being of the community. We feel sure that today, although none complain of it, the councilmen feel that they are penalizing their personal affairs when they undertake progressive movements that require many nights and days of consultations, supervision and time away from their offices and whether they want to admit it or not, they are.

Each councilman is called upon to shoulder the supervision and make the operating decisions for all of the various departments of city government: gas system, water system, streets, fire, police and sanitary departments, etc. More often than not, the citizenry appeal direct to the councilman concerned when they seek action, and it falls his lot to forsake his business and take steps to appease the complainer.

We have often wondered if the past mayors and councilmen had ever thought of hiring a city manager to take direct operating control of these functions, full-time, and take the load off their back. When city revenue from all departments runs several hundred thousand dollars a year, it would look like good business to have such a man. If the city continues to expand its public facilities properly and economically, it would seem that such a man, accountable to the mayor and council at their regular monthly meetings, might be a good thing to think about, even at a salary of $6, $7 or $8 thousand dollars a year.

Last Sunday we had occasion to engage in conversation with a former city councilman who is also a good businessman, and he brought up the subject himself as a possibility worth considering.

Cancer, Like H-Bomb Needs An Early Warning

In a hydrogen bomb attack on an unidentified American city of 1,240,000 population, 49 per cent would escape death if they received advance warning and took precautions. This estimate was made public in Washington a few months ago by Civilian Defense Administrator Val Peterson.

In an attack by cancer - the nation's No. 2 killer - Americans have a 50 per cent chance of escaping death if they receive warning and obtain early, adequate treatment. So American Cancer Society statistics indicate.

Mr. Peterson disclosed that the government was experimenting with a warning device that could be installed in a bedroom and be set off by a change in electric current if enemy bombers approached. He predicted that within two years an elaborate detection system would be able to warn target cities from two to six hours of an enemy bomber raid.

The Cancer Society is conducting a year-round, nation-wide program to apprise the public of the warning symptoms of that disease, and how vital it is to have prompt medical attention, so that the present high death toll from this cause may be steadily cut down.

Cancer often gives early warning by one of seven common danger signals which can be easily observed by people generally. But to detect some of its sneak attacks in an early stage the observers must be physicians.

Billions of dollars are being spent by the government for super-range jet planes and guided missiles of tremendous power, as a defense against hydrogen or atomic bomb air raiders.

In contrast, the ACS is seeking the comparatively modest total of $24,000,000 in its annual educational and fund-raising crusade, while preparing for a knockout offensive against cancer by supporting research and stimulating discovery of new, more effective medical weapons against cancer.

We feel sure no one in this community will want to shirk the opportunity to contribute and thus play a part in continuing the national Society's campaign to control this malady, aid patients, and carry on both professional and public education about cancer and the possibilities of cure for sufferers.

Sermonette of the Week.

Better Adults Mean Better Juveniles

By Robert C. Hendrickson, Former Chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY is a challenge to the very sinews of our future existence. Not even the Communist conspiracy could devise a more effective way to demoralize and destroy our future citizens than the scourge of juvenile delinquency.

More than a million children every year are getting into trouble with the police. This figure will grow to nearly 1,500,000 within six years, with 750,000 of these young people actually winding up in court. Figures show that this is not just a big city problem, but one that faces every town or village in our country.

DELINQUENCY RISES from society's failure to meet children's emotional and religious needs. One more punishment, one new playground is never the answer to a community's problem. But all too often such a narrow, materialistic approach characterizes our attack upon the problem of juvenile delinquency.

The adult concept of law and order is another important factor in juvenile delinquency. The morality of a community cannot be divided into two parts: children get their ideas from their parents and the "grown-ups." The adult attitude towards evading income taxes, "fixing" traffic tickets, and instructing a child to tell the bill collector "mama is out" all breed in the child a disrespect for law and order. It may well be that the moral failings of our national life lie as a root cause of our children's troubles.

OUR SUBCOMMITTEE looked into the connection between comic books and juvenile delinquency.

and juvenile crime. Not all comic books are bad, but we have discovered crime and horror comics sold by the millions which can't help but have a harmful effect on young minds.

We have also discovered a vast traffic in pornographic literature of indescribable depravity which has become big business in our country (one operator made a quarter of a million dollars in two years). I had a difficult time believing such lewd material existed in our country. Yet millions of such cartoons, magazines, and pocket books are flooding our country, destroying the moral fiber of our youth while we sit idly by.

ALL THE TESTIMONY before our Subcommittee, however, showed that up to this time we may have been seeking the wrong prevention and cure for juvenile delinquency. The indecent comic books and pornographic literature, the brutality on television and in the newspapers, all these may be just effects from a common cause rather than the ultimate reason for our juvenile delinquency problem.

They are evidences of the deeper problem facing our country today, the moral failings of our national life. This moral failing of our adult population is certainly the ultimate cause of our juvenile delinquency problem. Since moral failing is the cause, the answer to juvenile delinquency really lies in the right ordering of our personal lives.

TURNING BACK THE CLOCK

(March 21, 1930)

Mrs. Stella Ellis announces the marriage of her daughter, Janie, to Mr. Addition B. Dunning. The ceremony took place Wednesday afternoon, February 26, 1930, at Fulton, Ky.

The Browder Milling Co. have made another addition to their large milling plant on State Line Street, a three story structure to house their corn drying machine.

At the annual meeting of the Fulton County Club held Tuesday evening all of the officers and directors were re-elected as follows: Sam Holt, president; Joe Browder, vice-president; J. W. Gordon, secretary; C. P. Williams, treasurer. The dues for the coming year are $35.00. Non-resident members on payment of dues will be admitted without being share holders.

Dr. Hugh Prather, director of the Fulton County Health Department, submits the following report of medical inspection of Terry-Norman School which he calls attention to as being above the average in physical fitness.

There were 77 children examined and of this number five were free from defects. They were as follows: Donald Stroud, Ruth Sanders, Jarrell Stockdale, Willodean Simpson, Jimmie Carroll.

With the close of registration for the second semester of the school year at the University of Kentucky a total of 2,810 students were registered in the various colleges of the United States, a group that showed an increase in number of over 300, according to enrollment figures from the preceding February.

Among the new students at the University of Kentucky this semester from Fulton, Ky. are: James Edwin Slaughter, Robert O. Moss, Mildred Louise Graham and Philip Clements.

Mrs. J. R. Snow of Fulton, district committee woman, will be in charge of the meeting of the district American Legion Auxiliary conference to be held in Paducah March 28.

Mrs. Warren Ware was named chairman for a bridge party which the auxiliary will give the first week in April. Mrs. Ware will be assisted by Mrs. James G. Blake, Mrs. Slaughter and Mrs. Pete Wildt.

Mr. and Mrs. Roper Fields and daughter, Betty Jean, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Suggs, Sr.

Kentucky Windage

By P. W.

There should have been a lot of extra faces in Church Sunday around Fulton if everyone realized just how close a call we apparently had from the jet plane that crashed Saturday night a scant few miles from the outskirts. In taking pictures at the scene Sunday and trying to determine the glide path of the plane I followed a line along the ground to the skyline and found myself looking squarely at the WFUL radio tower, which means that evidently the plane, pilotless, was on a long, level glide right square over the city before it crashed. Let us be thankful.

The Fulton Rotary Club, although having no notion that it can set out to beat Clinton Rotary's national record of well over a year perfect attendance, nevertheless has gone through six meetings without a member missing or else failing to "make-up" at another Club, and things are now really rolling. Bob White and Dr. Ward Bushart, on recent vacation in Florida, made sure they kept up their attendance at Florida clubs, and this week we received a note from another Rotarian, Charles Cannon, who is attending a two-week insurance school in Louisville. Charles, figuring that members might be uneasy at his absence from town, wrote a special note home to assure everyone that he will keep his part of the record clean.

Congratulations to Charlie Scates Store on a nice looking new store front, completed this week. The store-front and remodeling program has produced an additional convert every week this year, so far!

According to a straw vote taken in Elizabethtown last week and highly publicized by his campaign committee, Happy Chandler polled 72% of the ballots.

Shucks, that doesn't look so hot to us. Happy has been running for a year and three months ago would have polled 100%, since he had no opposition at that time. If Combs can continue to pickup 28% every three months, as he has so far, that won't leave Happy but 16%, come August election-time.

Once upon a time down in Jacksonville, Florida we came across a fellow who liked green. Everything he had was green. Green tie, green shirt, green suit, green shoes, green auto, green everything. Got a special permit from Florida to keep his license plate green, every year. Now here in Fulton we have a fellow who likes red... and I'll be hanged if he's not gradually changing everything to that color. Bought a red car this year, has all red trucks, gets all his printing done in red... and this week was a payoff. Walked in his office restroom to wash my hands and found that even the paper towels now sport a reddish tint. If Bill Grooms now emerges with red tie, red suit and red shoes, don't be alarmed... that's the next logical step!

266 stills were confiscated last year by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control... and judging from current activities in Western Kentucky they're out to beat the record in '55. Almost a third of the whole State's raiding evidently took place in Harlan County, where 86 were seized, but Trigg County, with 14 seizures, ranked fifth in the list of 34 counties raided.

In the purchase, McCracken County turned up four, Lyon County one, and Calloway County one. Fulton County was unlisted.

Oddest name on the listing was Nelson County, which supports 15 high-grade licensed distilleries. Even there, however, one moonshiner was caught trying out his trade.

Chick Wingate informs us that on May 30 Station WFUL will carry the entire 3 1/2-hour Indianapolis speedway race from start to finish, as well as the time trials on May 14, 15, 21 and 22. Sounds like a real program for speed fans.

If women are entitled to buy their husband's haberdashery, why shouldn't the husbands be on hand when the girls buy their shoes?

An historic letter that has disappeared from English use was shaped like a "Y." This was the Saxon letter "thorn." It had the sound of "th" and was used down through the era of early English printing, often as a capital at the start of a paragraph.

Uninformed readers invariably interpret it as our modern "Y" and pronounce "ye" where their ancestors would have said "the." Pseudo antiquarians who launch Ye Olde Tyme Tea Room pronounce "ye" and achieve a sense of quaintness. There are a lot of folks who need to be told that an Englishman of the past never said "ye house" nor "ye wife," but would have said "the."

Many users of the handy Scotch tape have wondered why it is called Scotch. The story is that the manufacturers at first tried to save adhesive by putting it only on the edges of the cellophane. Customers complained that this must be a Scotch practice, and the name stuck.

The company is called the three M's for Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing. It began business by mining a hard mineral called corundum to make grinding wheels and sandpaper. Then it expanded from abrasives to a pressure tape for use in painting automobiles. It now turns out such specialties as sound-recording tape, gift-wrapping ribbon, lithographic plates, and fluid for fire extinguishers.

MARCH MEETING OF VICTORY HOMEMAKERS HAS WONDERFUL LESSON

Bound button holes, piped button holes, and pockets were the topics of the March meeting of the Victory Homemakers. Mrs. Harold Copeland and Mrs. Raymond Harrison, in giving the lesson, presented it so instructively, with their made samples and diagrams, and asked each member to make a button hole while at the meeting.

Mrs. Reginald Williamson read a paper prepared by Mrs. Ernest Jenkins on "My Travels Through Kentucky." The club is very fortunate indeed to have such talent, when a person can paint such a picture before a group of their travels as this!

Mrs. McLeod announced to the club about the district meeting to be on April 21, at Murray and plans were made for those of the group who could attend.

The recreation leader was Mrs. J. R. Powell, who is so very clever with the games and songs, for the day. She always puts new interest in the group.

The beautiful gardens that were planned last January are now in readiness to go to work, so the landscape leader told the club.

At noon a most wonderful meal was served pot-luck, with Mrs. E. E. Cook, as hostess.

The tables were decorated with lovely spring flowers now in bloom and a ray of sunshine greeted the guests.

There were 21 members and two visitors, Mrs. Edna Young and Mrs. Faulkner from Cadiz, Ky., present. The visitors were guests of Mrs. Frances, a member of the club.

Mrs. Erwin Bard was the lucky winner of the gift box, which Mrs. Fred Collier had brought to the club, and after distributing the Sunshine gifts, the club adjourned to meet on April 12 with Mrs. Harold Copeland.

WINGO GRADUATE TO MARRY BARBARA WIMAN IN DUBLIN CEREMONY

Barbara Lee Wiman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie C. Wiman of Dublin, Ky., announces her engagement and approaching marriage to Robert Lee Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sullivan of Dublin.

RUSH CREEK HOMEMAKERS ENJOY MARCH MEET AT SYLVAN SHADE

Buttonholes bound and piped and pockets were the topics of interest in the major lesson given to the Rush Creek Homemakers Club at the March meeting which was held at Sylvan Shade Community House. Mrs. James Owens and Mrs. Robert Adams, project leaders, did a good job of explaining the lesson and also made samples for everyone to see and follow.

Mrs. Harry Sublette, Jr. presided at the business meeting, during which the club filled out reports for next year's choice of projects. Mrs. Sublette also read the garden notes.

Landscape notes were given by Mrs. John Watts and they concerned perennials, flowers and shrubs.

Mrs. Robert Adams, vice-president, also reported for the membership committee.

A reading lesson on historical points of interest in Kentucky was read to the club by Mrs. Albert Moss.

The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Charles Everett and Mrs. Forrest Trevathan and the club was happy to have Mrs. Joe Ross as a visitor. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Call and Mrs. Carl Harrison will serve as co-hostess.

COOKIE SALE OF GIRL SCOUTS IS NOW GOING ON

Busy Little Girls Selling Cakes To Take Camp Trips

The Bear Creek Council of Girl Scouts began their Annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale March 11th through the 19th. Proceeds from the sale go to the camping program, both Bear Creek Girl Scout Camp on Kentucky Lake as well as the Girl Scout Day Camps.

One of the most popular parts of the Girl Scout program is camping. The Cookie Sale not only provides a means for each girl to help expand the camping program but is a chance for individual development. She learns how to approach the public, to handle money and sell her product. It gives her an opportunity to have a share in the development of camping in Western Kentucky.

Proceeds from the Cookie Sale will go to the camping needs of the area - for equipment for Day Camps held in all parts of the area. It is hoped by the Council that the Cookie Sale will bring enough revenue to increase the number of boats the camp now has. With only one canoe, one sailboat and two row boats, the boating program is definitely curtailed. The girls will be spending more and more time at Kentucky Lake since it is an integral part of our area. Therefore it is a vital need that they learn the correct way to handle boats on the lake.

The girls who have been going back to Camp Bear Creek year after year express their desire for a Tent Unit. As they advance in the skills of camping the more primitive type of camp-

The barn contained some 300 bales of hay, about 50 barrels of corn and ten head of livestock, which apparently were not in the barn at the time of the crash. Observers of the fire said that the livestock, two milk cows and eight yearlings, were uncontrollable at the accident and were most difficult to handle. The loss was partially covered by insurance. A wagon in the barn was also destroyed.

A map of the jet's course is shown elsewhere on this page. It is believed that the plane passed about 500 feet above the most densely populated section of Fulton, narrowly averting what could have been a tragic disaster.

J. R. POWELL SITS BESIDE HIS RADIO: where he was last Saturday night listening to Basketball tournament at Murray when jet plane zoomed over and exploded at barn. Thinking it might have been his gas system, he did not realize what had happened until he went outside and saw barn afire.

SHINING LIGHTS OF CAYCE TALENT TO PERFORM FOR SHINING SCHOOL LIGHTS

If you haven't made plans to be at Cayce High School Friday, March 18, start to make them now or you will miss the event of the year, "The School and Home Variety Show" sponsored by the Cayce PTA. Each of the 12 grades will be represented in the show, first by student participation and then by the parents who are going to do their best (or worst) to outshine their off-springs.

The show starts at 7:45 p. m. with Mrs. John Rose as mistress of ceremonies and the admission price is only 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. A door prize, cake walk and a radio to be given away, are added attractions and plenty of good refreshments, such as home made candy, pop-corn balls and pop corn will be on sale.

The show is being given as part of a campaign to raise funds to install fluorescent lights in the class rooms. Lights have been installed this year in the first six grades but funds have run out and now the PTA is going all-out to raise more, so please come out to Cayce, help a good cause and have a wonderful evening of fun this Friday, March 18.

The program is as follows: Children: 1st grade: Tap dance solo, Carene Harrison, accompanied by Miss Wilma Shuff; 2nd grade: play, "The Bad Chair" and song, by the class; 3rd grade: piano solo, Nancy Carol Brown; 4th grade: harmony band, by the class; 5th grade: playlet, "Timid Tommy," by the class; 6th grade: reading, "The Flapper Attends A Church Wedding" by Melinda Bizwell; 7th grade: skit song and reading by the class; 8th grade: skit, "Bargain Day At The Gallery"; 9th grade: skit, "Over The Telephone"; 10th grade: Black-face Minstrel, by the class; 11th and 12th grades: Musical number, by the Junior and Senior girls.

prohibiting "no-strikes" during the term of the contract, the union members similarly are holding out for deletion of that clause in the agreement made to the union by Southern Bell.

Meanwhile most Fulton businesses and residents are crippled as a result of the strike. Grocery stores were making house to house calls, wholesale houses were making a minimum of calls and life without a phone is not a very pleasant way to be.

93% OF MEMBERS STRIKE, UNION SAYS
William E. Byars President Local 3306 Communications Workers of America made the following comment on the strike against The Southern Bell Telephone Company today.

"We have a total of 93% of our membership out on strike. Service to the public is given by supervisory personnel and a small number of scabs.

"Although we have not and will not participate or tolerate any violence on the part of our members the local police have been used to escort scabs from the office to their homes.

"We of local 3306 would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Allen Jones, Railroad employees, ACWA-CIO and all of the other people who have given us aid and support."

Reports indicate that the pilot parachuted from the plane near Latham and landed in a tree where he was found and taken to the Martin hospital for the treatment of minor injuries.

Our Chestnut Glade correspondent, Mrs. Harvey Vaughn reported in her column this week that the pilot of the plane followed the light to the home of the Jess Pates after having parachuted near that Community. Mrs. Vaughn reported that the pilot nearly collapsed at the door when it was opened.

The pilot, Lt. Kenneth Underwood, 30, of Mt. Clemens, Mich. suffered a slight back injury in the jump and was taken to the Weakley County hospital where he remained until Sunday afternoon. The officer, an Air Force reservist, said he lost control of the jet on a routine flight from Michigan to Memphis. Four other jets in the flight continued on to Memphis.

mer will make the awards and J. A. Willingham President of the Fulton County Farm Bureau will be Chairman of the meeting.

THE Past and Present of
ANDERSON COUNTY

Lawrenceburg, named after Anderson County's first tavern-keeper, William Lawrence, is located on what was once the farm of the county's original settler, Jacob Coffman. When Indians killed her husband, Mrs. Coffman reportedly cried, "I'd rather lost my best cow!"
Today, Anderson County is still pioneering . . . in agriculture and industry. Excellent dairy herds have attracted a cheese plant and a shipping dairy. While tobacco is the chief crop, beef production is increasing.
There are four distilleries, a sausage plant and a Western Condensing manufacturing unit in Anderson County.
Many citizens of Anderson County, past and present, have always enjoyed an occasional glass of beer—the beverage of moderation. The sale of beer under orderly conditions is an important objective of your brewing industry. Our continuing educational program helps beer retailers maintain their high standards.

PATRICIA LATANE

Dear Pat:

I read your column in the County News every week. I sure enjoy it. I want to ask you some questions. Does this man that is talking to me love me? Will he make me a husband and will he be good to me? If so I want you to answer my question in this week's paper and also I want you to tell me where is that man which owes me a hundred and thirty eight dollars? Will I ever get it?

Your sad pal,
My Dear Sad Pal:
The man that owes you the money isn't thinking of you and you might as well not think of him because you want ever get this money. It's gone, all I can say is don't be so foolish next time.

Yes the fellow you are speaking of thinks a lot of you and I think you do him, but as for yourself you are not sure if you do or not. He would make you a good husband. He would make you a good living and would be good to you.

Dear Patricia:
Have been reading your letters and have become very interested in them.

I have a few questions to ask you. I am worried about my son and his wife. Do you think they will ever become a Christian? Will they change their ways for the children's sake, I ask God each day to change them. Do you think I will ever live in another town and will my hands and feet ever clear up? Hope I haven't asked you too many questions. May God bless you.

A worried Mother

Hope to soon read my letter in the paper.

Dear Worried Mother:
Yes, I do see where your hands and feet are not giving you any trouble but if it is for good that I can't say. Yes, your son and family will become Christians but it will be some time yet before they come into church. So keep praying for them and I will think of you in my prayers. No I do not see you moving.

Dear Patricia:
This is my second time to write. Hope this reaches your column.

Does the boy I'm going with really love me? Will we get married in the near future? What month? We live on the place he bought? Will he get a job here or out of town? Will I work at my present job much longer? I'll be watching for my letter.

Anxious

Dear Anxious:
Yes, he is in love with you and you will marry in June of this year. Yes, you will live on the place he has bought. He will work here. Yes, you will continue to work.

Hi Pat:

I have just got through reading some of your letters in the paper. I wonder if you could tell me a few things? Does this year hold any future for me? If so, how much? Will I ever see the girl I met two years ago? Have I ever been married? If not, will I marry and have I ever met the girl at the present time.

Just a friend
Bill

Dear Bill:

Yes, you will land the best job you have ever had in your life the latter part of May. Yes, you will see her but it won't mean anything. No, you have never been married but you will marry in October of this year. No, you don't know her but will meet her in April the latter part. I would say between the 20th and the end of the month.

Dear Patricia:

Thanks a lot for answering my questions. Its just like I had the idea only I thought perhaps it was burned up now. Please give me the initials of the one who has it and thinks a lot. I am so pleased that I have a friend that has helped me so much. Bye always.

Your friend,
H. A. M.

Dear H. A. M.:

I am sorry but the only initial I can give you is H. Hope this will help.

Dear Patricia:

I have read your column and I have a few questions I would like to ask you.

Does the boy I'm going with now love me?

Will I marry the boy I'm going with?

If not, who will I marry? Will I marry before I finish school or after I graduate?

How many children will I have? Where will I live? Will we be happy?

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
R. I.

Dear R. I.:

No, the boy you are now going is not in love with you and you will not marry him. No, you will marry after you graduate and at present you don't know him. His initials will be

R. T. You will live in the country. Yes, you will be happy.

Dear Patricia:

I have a few questions to ask. Should we go on and fix our house up and stay here or should we sell and get away? Will my boys find work soon? If so, where?

Answer this in next week's paper please.

Dear L. C. T.:

Stay where you are by all means. Don't sell. If you do you will regret it. The boys will get work in a factory.

Dear Patricia:

Would you please answer these questions for me?

I have an important date with this boy and it will be the third one with him. Should I expect him to kiss me good night? Will we double with another couple? Where will we go?

A. B. F. B.

Dear A. B. F. B.:

Yes, you will double date with another couple. Yes, he will kiss you but you shouldn't let him. You want go any place except ride around.

Plans were made at a meeting here for a state-wide survey of mental health needs. The meeting was called by Governor Wetherby and attended by members of the Governor's Advisory Council on Mental Health and leaders in other fields throughout Kentucky.

The American Psychiatric Association will conduct the survey which will probably last until late summer. Public hearings will be held to enable individuals and groups to express themselves as to what Kentucky needs in the way of additional mental health facilities.

PATRICIA LATANE

Dear Pat:

I read your column in the County News every week. I sure enjoy it. I want to ask you some questions. Does this man that is talking to me love me? Will he make me a husband and will he be good to me? If so I want you to answer my question in this week's paper and also I want you to tell me where is that man which owes me a hundred and thirty eight dollars? Will I ever get it?

Your sad pal.
My Dear Sad Pal:

The man that owes you the money isn't thinking of you and you might as well not think of him because you want ever get this money. It's gone, all I can say is don't be so foolish next time.

Yes the fellow you are speaking of thinks a lot of you and I think you do him, but as for yourself you are not sure if you do or not. He would make you a good husband. He would make you a good living and would be good to you.

Dear Patricia:
Have been reading your letters and have become very interested in them.

I have a few questions to ask you. I am worried about my son and his wife. Do you think they will ever become a Christian? Will they change their ways for the children's sake, I ask God each day to change them. Do you think I will ever live in another town and will my hands and feet ever clear up? Hope I haven't asked you too many questions. May God bless you.

A worried Mother

Hope to soon read my letter in the paper.

Dear Worried Mother:

Yes, I do see where your hands and feet are not giving you any trouble but if it is for good that I can't say. Yes, your son and family will become Christians but it will be some time yet before they come into church. So keep praying for them and I will think of you in my prayers. No I do not see you moving.

Dear Patricia:

This is my second time to write. Hope this reaches your column.

Does the boy I'm going with really love me? Will we get married in the near future? What month? We live on the place he bought? Will he get a job here or out of town? Will I work at my present job much longer?

I'll be watching for my letter.

Anxious

Dear Anxious:

Yes, he is in love with you and you will marry in June of this year. Yes, you will live on the place he has bought.

He will work here. Yes, you will continue to work.

Hi Pat:

I have just got through reading some of your letters in the paper. I wonder if you could tell me a few things? Does this year hold any future for me? If so, how much? Will I ever see the girl I met two years ago? Have I ever been married? If not, will I marry and have I ever met the girl at the present time.

Just a friend
Bill

Dear Bill:

Yes, you will land the best job you have ever had in your life the latter part of May. Yes, you will see her but it won't mean anything. No, you have never been married but you will marry in October of this year. No, you don't know her but will meet her in April the latter part. I would say between the 20th and the end of the month.

Dear Patricia:

Thanks a lot for answering my questions. Its just like I had the idea only I thought perhaps it was burned up now. Please give me the initials of the one who has it and thinks a lot. I am so pleased that I have a friend that has helped me so much. Bye always.

Your friend,
H. A. M.

Dear H. A. M.:

I am sorry but the only initial I can give you is H. Hope this will help.

Dear Patricia:

I have read your column and I have a few questions I would like to ask you.

Does the boy I'm going with now love me?

Will I marry the boy I'm going with?

If not, who will I marry? Will I marry before I finish school or after I graduate?

How many children will I have? Where will I live? Will we be happy?

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
R. I.

Dear R. I.:

No, the boy you are now going is not in love with you and you will not marry him. No, you will marry after you graduate and at present you don't know him. His initials will be

R. T. You will live in the country. Yes, you will be happy.

Dear Patricia:

I have a few questions to ask. Should we go on and fix our house up and stay here or should we sell and get away? Will my boys find work soon? If so, where?

Answer this in next week's paper please.

L. C. T.

Dear L. C. T.:

Stay where you are by all means. Don't sell. If you do you will regret it. The boys will get work in a factory.

Dear Patricia:

Would you please answer these questions for me?

I have an important date with this boy and it will be the third one with him. Should I expect him to kiss me good night? Will we double with another couple?

Where will we go?

A. B. F. B.

Dear A. B. F. B.:

Yes, you will double date with another couple. Yes, he will kiss you but you shouldn't let him. You want go any place except ride around.

perform, their refreshing manner, great technical ability, and their varied and exciting interpretations of the classical and the modern hold audiences to the last singing tone of their final encore.
The Angelaires program for this concert shows that everyone will enjoy their music: The first half of their program contains music in Spanish styles, French Suite, Debussy's "Clair de Lune" and a Rumba by Salzedo. The second half contains an Irish Folk Song, an old English Folksong, and selections from George Gershwin, Richard Rodgers and Vincent Youmans.
As one newspaper review stated: "The strikingly graceful appearance of the group and the precision of movements of hands and arms as they played is a show in themselves and the result of that precision, giving the tonal effects of one giant harp was not only beautiful but exciting."
This is the finest concert the Community Concerts Association of Fulton has been able to bring to town; and it is one that will be long remembered by the audience.
